

DREAM BIG!

League
of American Orchestras

HOUSTON
SYMPHONY

leagueconference.org
#orch2024

STUDENTS!

You're invited to attend the League of American Orchestras' 2024 National Conference!

Hosted by the Houston Symphony
Houston, TX | June 6–8, 2024 | Marriott Marquis Houston

The League of American Orchestras champions the vitality of music and the orchestral experience, supports the orchestra community, and leads change boldly. Over three days, professionals working in the industry will connect with each other, share best practices, celebrate the field's accomplishments, and dream for the future of orchestras. Attending this event will directly support your journey towards a career with orchestras!

LEARN MORE AND REGISTER AT
leagueconference.org/students

When you attend Conference as a student member of the League, you'll get:

- FREE early-bird registration*
- Access to all the general sessions
- Opportunities to meet and connect with professionals
- Student-only sessions, created especially for those looking to work in the orchestral field

Student constituency agenda topics will include:

- How an orchestra works
- Orchestra career panel
- Skills you need for orchestra career success

Visit americanorchestras.org/students to become a member.

Free registration is limited and first-come, first-served until May 2, 2024. After we run out of free registrations, students can attend at the deeply discounted rate of $200. Parents/guardians must remain with and are responsible for students under age 18. Please note that alcohol consumption by minors is strictly prohibited.*